

IN THE CLAIMS

51. (Currently Amended) An infrared imaging system as set out in claim ~~4~~,40, wherein said focal plane array further comprises a differential amplifier with first and second inputs wherein the first input is electrically connected to the readout circuit so as to receive the detection signals and wherein the second input is connected to an adjustable reference voltage.